OFFICIAL PRESS RELEASE

On 11/26/2025 at approximately 1629 hours, officers responded to 25 E. Broad Street (Dollar General) for a report of criminal mischief. Further investigation revealed Tyray Johnson 44 of Millville NJ attempted to shoplift items from the store. When advised to leave by staff members, Johnson punched a window damaging it. Johnson was placed under arrest and transported to the Bridgeton Police Department where he was processed. When officers attempted to place Johnson back into a patrol vehicle to transport him to the Cumberland County Jail, Johnson kicked a patrol vehicle causing damage to the door. At the conclusion of the incident, Johnson was formally charged with criminal mischief, shoplifting and failure to allow fingerprinting. He was lodged in the Cumberland County Jail without further incident.
