Cape May Court House, New Jersey - Cape May County Prosecutor Jeffrey H. Sutherland announces that the Cape May County Prosecutor's Office together with the New Jersey State Police Woodbine Barracks are actively investigating reports of alleged abuse that may have occurred at the Woodbine School District. This investigation stemmed from an active investigation from Atlantic County involving a teacher's aide, 43-year old Shaun Stebbins who was employed by the Woodbine School District.

The Cape May County investigation is ongoing, and law enforcement are working diligently to gather all relevant information to ensure a thorough investigation is completed regarding any allegations of abuse.

The Cape May County Prosecutor's Office is asking for the public's assistance. Anyone who may have information related to any incidents is strongly encouraged to come forward.

Information can be reported by contacting the Cape May County Prosecutor's Office at 609-465-1135 or by submitting an anonymous tip through the Prosecutor's Office website at cmcpo.tips.

"The safety and well-being of our community, especially our children, remains our highest priority," Prosecutor Sutherland stated.

It should be noted Stebbins has charges pending out of Atlantic County and is currently detained. No further details are being released currently due to this being an active investigation.
