Detectives Investigating Murder/Suicide in Pennsauken

Pennsauken, NJ – Detectives are investigating a murder/suicide involving family members that occurred this morning in Pennsauken, announced Camden County Prosecutor Grace C. MacAulay and Pennsauken Police Chief Phil Olivo.

On Wednesday, September 16, 2026, at approximately 9:01 a.m., officers from the Pennsauken Police Department responded to a residence on the 4400 block of Bethel Avenue in Pennsauken in reference to a shooting. Additionally, police were notified that a male suspect armed with a handgun was present at the residence. Upon arrival, officers located a gunshot victim, identified as 59-year-old Janet Camacho of Pennsauken, on the front steps of the residence. The victim was transported to Cooper University Hospital, where she was pronounced deceased at approximately 9:38 a.m.

A perimeter was established around the residence and members of the Camden County Sheriff's Emergency Response Team responded. At approximately 10:37 a.m., police located the male suspect deceased from a self-inflicted gunshot wound inside the residence. The suspect was identified as the victim's brother Daniel Lopez, 60, of Pennsauken. He was pronounced deceased at approximately 10:41 a.m.

The investigation is active and ongoing at this time. No further information will be released at this time.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Detective Jake Siegfried of the Camden County Prosecutor's Office Homicide Unit at (856) 225-5086 and Detective Thalia Aviles of the Pennsauken Police Department at (856) 488-0080. Tips may also be sent to CAMDEN.TIPS.
