Atlantic City Man Pleads Guilty to Domestic Violence Aggravated Assault

MAYS LANDING, NJ – On Wednesday, November 4, 2026, Elijah Green, 24, of Atlantic City, NJ, pleaded guilty to third-degree aggravated assault, third-degree aggravated assault on a domestic violence victim, and third-degree resisting arrest in front of the Honorable Christine Smith, J.S.C. The plea calls for a recommended aggregate sentence of three years in New Jersey State Prison.

On February 18, 2026, officers of the Atlantic City Police Department responded to 1207 Pacific Avenue for a report of a staff member being assaulted. The victim advised that one individual, Green, had thrown him to the ground and struck him in the face multiple times. Green was identified and charged accordingly.

On May 5, 2026, officers of the Atlantic City Police Department responded to a residence for a report of a domestic violence incident. The victim reported she was assaulted by her child's father, Green. When officers attempted to arrest Green, he resisted arrest by using physical force.

Sentencing is scheduled for December 15, 2026.
